

TWIN COUNTY BOUNTY HUNTERS

presents Open Range War 2010

The Bruce County cattle Barons have gone too far this time with their lust for control of the whole tri-county area. The Grey county sheep farmers have banded together with free grazers from all over the territory. Now fences are being cut and line shacks are burnin, only just the start of the trouble thats a brewin. The bounty hunters are torn, sides are being chosen, freindships forgotten and family foresaken. Fore sure there is going to be a fight. A War even over the OPEN RANGE.
